Ethel Sergeant Clark Smith (1885-1975)

Although Ethel Sergeant Clark Smith was not blessed with children, she displayed an interest in and love of children. Without a natural beneficiary for her wealth and with her beloved husband (H. Harrison Smith) having predeceased her, she chose to benefit the general welfare through charitable grants to be administered by her named Trustee, The Philadelphia National Bank, now Wachovia Bank.

Initiated by the Trustee, assisted by counsel, encouraged and approved by the then President Judge of Delaware County, Francis J. Catania, a private foundation was fashioned with the residue of Mrs. Smith's estate and dedicated to benefit charitable organizations located in Southeastern Pennsylvania, with primary emphasis on serving community needs in Delaware County, Pennsylvania, Mrs. Smith's longtime home.

The Memorial Fund has operated, since its inception on July 7, 1977, to serve these charitable interests. Its list of grants over the last twenty-seven years is a lasting tribute to the memory of this lovely lady from Radnor. During this period, over eleven million dollars have been distributed for charitable causes in Southeastern Pennsylvania with concentration in Delaware County.

With the assistance of dedicated members of the community who serve and have served on the Advisory Board of the Fund, combined with the management and administration of the Fund by the Trustee, subject to the caring review of activities by both the Orphans' Court of Delaware County and the Attorney General of Pennsylvania, the Fund looks forward to continued service to the charitable needs of the local community.

Today's concert is generously underwritten by The Ethel Sergeant Clark Smith Memorial Fund.

Rosalind Erwin: Conductor

A flexible, creative and highly accomplished conductor, Rosalind Erwin is welcome on podiums both in the USA and abroad. Born in Great Falls, Montana, Rosalind Erwin began her musical studies on the clarinet and piano, and made her conducting debut at age 13. She received her Bachelor's Degree in Performance from the New School of Music in Philadelphia and her Masters in Performance from Temple University. At Temple she studied with Anthony Gigliotti, Principal Clarinet of the Philadelphia Orchestra and was appointed Resident Conductor of the Composition Department. As clarinetist, Erwin has appeared soloist with the Pittsburgh Symphony and has performed with the Philadelphia Orchestra. She has studied with and been mentored by conducting greats Riccardo Muti, Leonard Slatkin, David Zinman, Joseph Barone and William Smith. She has been honored by the Leopold Stokowsky Memorial Conducting Competition sponsored by the Rittenhouse Square Women's Committee of the Philadelphia Orchestra.

Erwin was the founder and creative force behind Musica 2000 – The Symphony Orchestra. Erwin commissioned works by emerging American composers, presenting world premieres both in the USA and abroad.

As Music Director of the Pottstown Symphony Orchestra, Erwin elevated the orchestra to exceptional artistic heights, expanded educational outreach via collaboration with other arts organizations and brought contemporary music into concert programming. Erwin commissioned and premiered the overture Simple by Guggenheim Fellow Robert Maggio, as well as Alabanza by Philadelphia composer Kile Smith.

Highly acclaimed as an educator, Erwin has conducted Pennsylvania and New Jersey Music Educator Associations' All-State, Regional and District Festival Orchestras. Erwin is the former Music Director and Conductor of the Delaware County Youth Orchestra, Luzerne Music Center Orchestras and Settlement Music School Chamber Orchestra. Erwin has served as guest lecturer for Arcadia University's Community Scholars program, and Guest Lecturer and Celebrity Guest for the Philadelphia Orchestra Lecture/Luncheon Series.

Guest conducting engagements have included orchestras in Portugal, the Czech Republic and Bulgaria, as well as throughout the USA. She was featured conductor during American Music Week with the Sophia Philharmonic in Bulgaria and guest conducted Sinfonijski orkestar Hrvatska vojske.

Erwin was named Director and Conductor of the Philadelphia Young Artists Orchestra in January 2014. She is currently also Conductor and Music Director of the Drexel University Orchestra.

Philadelphia Youth Orchestra Organization

Louis Scaglione

President & Music Director

The Philadelphia Youth Orchestra Organization

The Philadelphia Youth Orchestra is the tri-state region's premier youth orchestra organization for gifted, young, classical musicians, and one of the oldest and most highly regarded youth orchestra organizations in the United States. For 76 years, the Philadelphia Youth Orchestra organization has been providing professional-caliber musical experiences to young instrumentalists, while thrilling discriminating audiences in the Greater Philadelphia region and across the globe.

The organization has five programs: Philadelphia Youth Orchestra (PYO), Philadelphia Young Artists Orchestra (PYAO), Bravo Brass, Philadelphia Region Youth String Music (PRYSM), and Tune Up Philly, an El Sistema inspired program.

Ranging in age from 6 to 21 years, the musicians of the Philadelphia Youth Orchestra organization are selected by competitive audition and come from a 70-plus-mile radius of Philadelphia encompassing nearly 20 counties within Pennsylvania, New Jersey, and Delaware. Through advanced orchestra repertoire, students are challenged to perform at professional levels, to strive for advanced musicianship, and to achieve superior technical, musical, and personal application.

Former PYO musicians currently hold chairs in most of the top 20 professional orchestras in the United States, with 12 PYO alumni currently serving in The Philadelphia Orchestra.

Philadelphia Youth Orchestra

Established in 1939, Philadelphia Youth Orchestra is one of the most well-recognized youth orchestras in the nation, provides the region's most advanced instrumental music students with unparalleled training and performance opportunities under the direction of nationally acclaimed Maestro Louis Scaglione. In addition to the opportunity to showcase their talents through high-profile performances at high-profile venues, including Verizon Hall at The Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts with live broadcasts on Philadelphia classical and jazz radio station WRTI, members learn character-building life skills and supplement their collegiate and conservatory applications, making them strong candidates for acceptance into the most prestigious universities and conservatories around the world. Fourteen international concert tours since 1981 have offered hundreds of talented young musicians the opportunity to perform in many of the world's great concert halls, where their performances have often been considered on par with professional orchestras.

Philadelphia Young Artists Orchestra

Philadelphia Young Artists Orchestra, PYO's companion orchestra, prepares younger classical music students through a sophisticated repertoire and rigorous intellectual and musical discipline. PYAO further provides the opportunity to work with a highly experienced professional conductor, musicians, and teachers; to rehearse a standard orchestral repertoire at a professional level; and to perform in high-profile professional venues throughout the greater Philadelphia region. For more than 21 years, PYAO has raised funds through performances to support organizations from throughout the region, including Reach Out and Read at The Children's Hospital of Philadelphia and the Youth Work Foundation of The Union League of Philadelphia. PYAO, conducted by Rosalind Erwin, was established in 1996 under a grant from the Pew Charitable Trusts.

Philadelphia Youth Orchestra Organization

Bravo Brass

Bravo Brass — the only year-round brass ensemble in the Philadelphia area and one of only three in the country — offers the highest level of individual and ensemble training opportunities for the most accomplished high school brass musicians in the tri-state region. Created in 1997 to provide advanced musical education and performance opportunities to talented young students, Bravo Brass offers a repertoire that challenges students to improve their individual and ensemble playing skills. The Bravo Brass teaching faculty, led by Maestro Paul Bryan, Dean of Faculty and Students at the Curtis Institute of Music, provides valuable musical training through side-by-side rehearsals.

Philadelphia Region Youth String Music

Created in 2007, Philadelphia Region Youth String Music (PRYSM) offers unparalleled, personalized instruction and educational support for the region's beginning to intermediate string students, under the direction of the highly respected Philadelphia Orchestra cellist Gloria dePasquale. PRYSM provides performance opportunities alongside faculty and in ensemble concerts with musicians from the Philadelphia Orchestra. In addition, the program provides students with mentorship opportunities and enables them to become strong candidates for matriculation into other PYO organization ensembles.

Tune Up Philly

Tune Up Philly offers a differentiated musical curriculum that was created to meet the specific needs of students living in challenging social and economic conditions, with a focus on effecting meaningful community change. As the first Philadelphia-area El Sistema program founded in 2010, Tune Up Philly's mission is to nurture children by keeping them engaged in success through weekday after-school music instruction. Under the leadership of Director Paul Smith, the program offers children an opportunity to learn and perform orchestral music and make a true difference within their communities, both through the use of music and through a purposeful connection with others. Tune Up Philly believes that music education is a powerful vehicle for children to master skills that will enable them to acquire valuable tools for cooperative learning, teamwork, academic success, and self-esteem.

PYO Organization Leadership

The 2015/2016 Season marks Maestro Louis Scaglione's 19th anniversary with the Philadelphia Youth Orchestra organization. He was appointed the PYO organization's Music Director in 2005, joined the artistic staff in 1997 as Conductor of the PYAO, and was appointed Associate Conductor of PYO in 1999. In addition to his work as a member of the artistic staff, Maestro Scaglione was appointed President of the PYO organization in 2004, having served as the program's Executive Director for three years.

Extraordinary artistic leadership is a hallmark of the Philadelphia Youth Orchestra organization. Adolph Sorian (1940–1941), J.W.F. Leman (1941–1952), William R. Smith (1952–1954), and Joseph Primavera (1954–2005) served as Music Directors, with Maestro Primavera having had the extraordinary distinction of being the longest-serving active conductor of any orchestra in the world.

Upper Darby High School Concert Choir & Encore Singers

Barbara Benglian
Director

The Upper Darby High School Concert Choir has earned a reputation in recent years that has connected the performance group with major cultural institutions in the Philadelphia area. The award-winning ensemble of 220 students is comprised of students from grades nine through twelve and participates in four major concerts per year at the Upper Darby Performing Arts Center. The Choir has enjoyed collaborations with such notable ensembles as the Philadelphia Boys Choir, the Philadelphia Young Artists Orchestra, and the Lansdowne Symphony Orchestra.

As the premier performing group of Upper Darby High School's vocal department, the Upper Darby High School Encore Singers have made a significant musical impact on their community and on the surrounding area with their busy concert schedule. Drawn by audition from the 220-voice Upper Darby High School Concert Choir, the 32-member group is made up of students from grades ten through twelve.

In recent years, The Encore Singers have been featured performers at Philadelphia's Kimmel Center, Longwood Gardens, Philadelphia's Union League, the Philadelphia Museum of Art and at many other performance locations.

Both Choirs have been heard at the John F. Kennedy Memorial Library and Museum in Boston, Massachusetts. They have also been heard at the Basilica of the Shrine of the Immaculate Conception in Washington, DC, Saint Paul the Apostle Church at Lincoln Center, and Cathedral of Saint John the Divine.

Additionally, the singers have participated in numerous music festivals and master classes in the United States. They have consistently earned superior ratings and gold medals in competitions and adjudications at festivals from Washington, DC to Boston, Massachusetts.

The ensembles are under the artistic direction of Barbara Benglian, Pennsylvania Teacher of the Year for 2006. A graduate of the West Chester University School of Music (M.M./B.S.), Mrs. Benglian received the West Chester University Distinguished Music Alumnus Award in 2006, and the West Chester University Distinguished Alumni Award in 2003. In addition to her role as Choral Director at Upper Darby High School, Mrs. Benglian serves as District Music Coordinator for the Upper Darby School District and its music faculty of 27 full-time professionals within the district's 14 schools. Their accompanist is Harry Dietzler, Executive and Artistic Director of the Upper Darby Performing Arts Center.

JOY TO THE WORLD !

Verse 1

Joy to the world! The Lord is come.
Let earth receive her king;
Let ev'ry heart prepare him room,
And heav'n and nature sing,
And heav'n and nature sing,
And heav'n and heav'n and nature sing

Verses 2

He rules the world with truth and grace,
And makes the nations prove.
The glories of his righteousness
And wonders of his love,
And wonders of his love
And wonders, wonders of his love!

HARK! THE HERALD ANGELS SING

Verse 1

Hark! The herald angels sing,
Glory to the new-born King;
Peace on earth and mercy mild,
God and sinners reconciled:
Joyful all ye nations rise,
Join the triumph of the skies,
With th'angelic host proclaim,
Christ is born in Bethlehem.
Hark! The herald angels sing,
Glory to the new-born King.

Verse 2

Christ, by highest heaven adored;
Christ, the everlasting Lord;
late in time behold him come,
offspring of a virgin's womb.
Veiled in flesh the Godhead see;
hail th' incarnate Deity,
pleased with us in flesh to dwell,
Jesus, our Emmanuel.
.Hark! The herald angels sing,
Glory to the new-born King.
